Our Story

Artisan Impact Myanmar (AIM) Crafts

Born from generations of rattan craftsmanship in rural Myanmar, AIM Crafts was created to connect traditional artisan communities with the global market. Rooted in over 20 years of hands on experience through our family business in Yekyi Township, we continue a legacy of skilled weaving, cultural heritage, and community craftsmanship.

Working closely with women artisans, we transform natural rattan into timeless handcrafted pieces designed for contemporary living. Every creation reflects the patience, skill, and dedication of the hands behind it while helping preserve traditional craftsmanship and support sustainable livelihoods within the communities we work with.

Sustainability & Artisan Impact

At AIM Crafts, sustainability extends beyond materials to the people who create each piece. We source 100% natural rattan from fast-growing, sustainably harvested forests in Northern Myanmar and carefully refine the material in our own workshops before production.

As a mission-driven export company, AIM Crafts is dedicated to building a strong and fairly paid artisan production network. By creating consistent market opportunities, we help artisans earn stable and growing incomes, strengthen their skills, and build long-term livelihoods within their communities. Our approach integrates social impact directly into our business operations—supporting traditional craftsmanship, encouraging the next generation of artisans, and creating sustainable employment opportunities as our production network continues to grow.
